1	Page No. 42, 43, 44 & 45 Clause No. Check list of technical Proposal Form No. T4B & T4C.	In Form No. T4B & T4C we will mention the Institute wise Bed strength or mention the total bed in a single Row as per the work order.	Clarification Form No. T4B is for experience in Hospitals and hence, there is a column "No. of Beds in the hospital". In case more than one hospital (health institution) are covered under one contract, then the total no. of hospitals (30 bed or more) covered under that contract are to be mentioned under the column "No. of Hospitals" and the health institution wise bed strength against each health facility are to be mentioned under the column "No. of Beds" in a single row by expanding the required row height of the concerned row in the format. However, Form T4C is for experience in organizations other than Hospitals and hence there is no "bed strength column" in Form T4C.
